

Bio Tech Student Worksheet

Biotechnology Sector	Benefits	Provide an example of the biotechnology in everyday life.
White Biotechnology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - dealing with industry - working to reduce pollution - creating biodegradable products - focusing on using fewer natural resources and less energy
Green Biotechnology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - dealing with the environment and agriculture - increasing food production - creating pest resistant crops - minimizing the use of chemicals
Blue Biotechnology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - focusing on marine plants and animals - saving coral reefs - creating more efficient ways of raising and harvesting fish - using marine life as supplements to improve human health
Red Biotechnology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - focusing on relieving human suffering and veterinary products - creating vaccines and antibiotics - creating new drugs and medications - working on gene therapy
Yellow Biotechnology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - focusing on increasing the nutrition found in our food - making cheese and bread - the process of fermentation 	